

Did you know that colors can affect the way you feel? Some might make you happy and some might remind you of something silly, but you can put your imagination to work to help you solve this puzzle!

Colors of the World

Across

- Think of yourself as an adorable, playful dolphin swimming around in the ocean. What is the color of your skin?
- Cute Dalmatian puppies can have spots that are this color.
- This color is also a popular metal that is commonly used for jewelry.
- Traffic cones are this color because they are bright and get everyone's attention.
- This is the main color of a stop sign.
- We plant our flowers in dirt this color.

Down

- Have you ever envisioned a cloud shaped like an animal? What color are the clouds?
- If you mixed red and white you would get this color.
- Pretend you are standing outside on a glorious spring day. What would the color of the sun be?
- Imagine yourself enjoying a view of the ocean, which can look like this color, as you sit on the beach or sail on a boat.
- If you were a frog hopping through a forest, maybe you would be this color.
- Iron Man's face shield is this color.